

ASSIGNMENT SHEET

September 22 – 26

- Monday - Return test (continued) & Intro. > The Revolutionary Period / Lecture/Discussion:
Colonial problems with England & The French and Indian War
HOMEWORK: Read/notes/terms > Pageant Chapter 7 (Due Wednesday)
- Tuesday - The French & Indian War (cont.) / Path to Revolution

ASSIGNMENT > Pseudo Seminar: In Spirit, Vol I, read pp. 150-156 and take notes. “Thomas Paine’s Common Sense and Thomas Jefferson’s Declaration of Independence have been referred to as the most potent propaganda documents in American History.” Is this a valid assessment of these two writings? Be ready to fully discuss these questions and more in a GRADED discussion. It is suggested that you have notes in front of you so you can make a valid contribution – For Monday, 9/29.

Wednesday & Thursday – Class assignment > Path to Revolution

- Friday - Student holiday > No school for you ☺

September 29 - October 3

- Monday - Graded Discussion > Propaganda
HOMEWORK: Read/notes & terms Pageant Chapter 8 (Due Thursday)
- Tuesday - Study Hall
- Wednesday - Unfinished business / > Lecture / discussion > The Revolutionary War
- Thursday - Back-to-School Night (Minimum Day)
> Lecture / discussion > The Revolutionary War (continued)
HOMEWORK: Work on these sections of PERSIA if you don’t fall behind
- Friday - Unfinished business / Lecture / discussion > Consequences of the War

October 6 – 13

- Monday - The Critical Years
- Tuesday - Class assignment > Evaluating the Articles of Confederation /
Lecture/Discussion > Historical Background of the Constitution
- Wednesday - The Constitution: Balancing Competing Interests
HOMEWORK: The Bill of Rights (Details in class, due Monday)
- Thursday - Video > Liberty
- Friday - Unfinished business

October 13 & 14

- Monday - The Federalist Papers / The Bill of Rights
HOMEWORK: Study / Work on PERSIA
- Tuesday - Cumulative Exam > 1500 – 1790 (All multiple choice)
HOMEWORK: Begin reading/notes/terms > Pageant text Chp. 10 (pgs. 190 – 201 > Stop @ “John Adams Becomes President”) Due Thursday

